An exciting opportunity to work with Emily Nicolaou, professional dancer in Europe for the past twelve years.

Emily Nicolaou is a professional contemporary dancer, teacher and choreographer with fifteen years of disciplinary work at the highest level. She studied performing arts from an early age at the North Carolina School of the Arts and spent her summers training in New York City with the Ailey School and Merce Cunningham, as well as in San Francisco at the Lines Ballet School. She went on to get her Bachelor of Fine Arts from UNCSA which led her to accept an apprenticeship with Hubbard Street Dance Chicago in 2009, helping to pave her ambition to move to Europe. In 2011 the Danish Dance Theater offered her a contract where she spent a decade performing, teaching, and touring all over Europe, Asia and North America. In 2020 she was invited to the Musiktheater im Revier dance company in Germany for two years while keeping her post in Denmark, where she freelances and works with global artists collaboratively, choreographing and teaching worldwide.

WAKE FOREST COMMUNITY BALLET

8-WEEK CONTEMPORARY DANCE WORKSHOP

Starts March 4, 2023
Ages 11 and Up
Saturdays, 12:45pm-2:15pm
March 4, 11, 18, 25 + April 1, 15, 22, 29
Class meets in Studio 101

Culminates in a performance at the CB Spring Concert.
Cost for the workshop is $150.

WAKE FOREST COMMUNITY BALLET
8-WEEK CONTEMPORARY DANCE WORKSHOP

Starts March 4, 2023
Ages 11 and Up
Saturdays, 12:45pm-2:15pm
March 4, 11, 18, 25 + April 1, 15, 22, 29
Class meets in Studio 101

Culminates in a performance at the CB Spring Concert.
Cost for the workshop is $150.

An exciting opportunity to work with Emily Nicolaou, professional dancer in Europe for the past twelve years.

Emily Nicolaou is a professional contemporary dancer, teacher and choreographer with fifteen years of disciplinary work at the highest level. She studied performing arts from an early age at the North Carolina School of the Arts and spent her summers training in New York City with the Ailey School and Merce Cunningham, as well as in San Francisco at the Lines Ballet School. She went on to get her Bachelor of Fine Arts from UNCSA which led her to accept an apprenticeship with Hubbard Street Dance Chicago in 2009, helping to pave her ambition to move to Europe. In 2011 the Danish Dance Theater offered her a contract where she spent a decade performing, teaching, and touring all over Europe, Asia and North America. In 2020 she was invited to the Musiktheater im Revier dance company in Germany for two years while keeping her post in Denmark, where she freelances and works with global artists collaboratively, choreographing and teaching worldwide.

WAKE FOREST COMMUNITY BALLET

8-WEEK CONTEMPORARY DANCE WORKSHOP

Starts March 4, 2023
Ages 11 and Up
Saturdays, 12:45pm-2:15pm
March 4, 11, 18, 25 + April 1, 15, 22, 29
Class meets in Studio 101

Culminates in a performance at the CB Spring Concert.
Cost for the workshop is $150.

An exciting opportunity to work with Emily Nicolaou, professional dancer in Europe for the past twelve years.

Emily Nicolaou is a professional contemporary dancer, teacher and choreographer with fifteen years of disciplinary work at the highest level. She studied performing arts from an early age at the North Carolina School of the Arts and spent her summers training in New York City with the Ailey School and Merce Cunningham, as well as in San Francisco at the Lines Ballet School. She went on to get her Bachelor of Fine Arts from UNCSA which led her to accept an apprenticeship with Hubbard Street Dance Chicago in 2009, helping to pave her ambition to move to Europe. In 2011 the Danish Dance Theater offered her a contract where she spent a decade performing, teaching, and touring all over Europe, Asia and North America. In 2020 she was invited to the Musiktheater im Revier dance company in Germany for two years while keeping her post in Denmark, where she freelances and works with global artists collaboratively, choreographing and teaching worldwide.